

May I Have Your Attention For the THURSDAY
Announcements
Today Is –NOV. 19, 2009

PLEASE STAND FOR THE PLEDGE

Please be seated for a minute of silence for Prayer, Reflection, or Meditation

Lions for Christ would love to pray for you. If you have any requests, put them in the Prayer Box located in the library or go to our web page.

Are you interested in being a part of the Roar, or being on the Announcements? If so, stop by room 225 and talk to Mrs. McGrath about tryout information so you can join for next semester. Tryouts will be the week after Thanksgiving Break.

All boys interested in trying out for the soccer team need to make sure you have your physical completed and turned in to the trainers before the Thanksgiving Break. Try-outs will start after school Nov. 30th. If you have any questions, please see Coach Elder or Coach Robb.

Lion's Pride is offering shout-outs to be published in our newspaper for all students and staff. Please come by room 558 or see a newspaper staff member to purchase yours today.

Spring High School will be collecting non-perishable food items for charity from 11/9 to 11/20. Please donate all food in the cafeteria on the stage before or during lunch. You can also donate food in room 506. This year, we will be having a contest; the house that donates the most food will win a t-shirt. Please give to help those people who are in need.

Seniors: Do you want your own page in the yearbook?!?! Buy your recognition ad today! Come by room 558 or see a yearbook staff member for more information.

National Honor Society will be collecting books for kids ages 5 - 18 for Unity House from Nov. 9th to Dec. 2nd. Please bring all donations to room 506, and thank you.

If your intention is to graduate this June or this August, even though you are classified as a junior, you need to request to see your House Counselor THIS WEEK. You will need to be sure your counselor is aware of your intentions, make sure that it IS POSSIBLE for you to graduate, and that you are added to the "Graduating Junior" list.

Calling all groups, organizations, teams, staff and students!! Come sign up for the Annual Spring ISD Fun Run! The Fun Run is Dec. 5th at WHS & the entry fee is $5.00. The school with the most entries will get the money collected for their wellness programs. Teen Leadership invites everyone to come out and represent SHS. Come register in room 606 or see Ms. Lucas for details.

If you are still interested in working on the Senior Mural Project, it's not too late. We are having another meeting Nov. 19th at 2:30 in Ms. Miller's room, 234. Remember, you do not have to be an art student to participate.

The Spring High Jazz Ensemble is holding auditions for the following instruments: Guitar, Bass, and Piano. Any interested students need to be able to read music and chords. Come by the band hall and talk to Mr. Clark if you think you might be interested. All information, including audition music will be distributed by Mr. Clark.

Senior Jennifer Esmond's art work has made it into the TOP 10 of the Culture Shapers Art contest. At the awards ceremony on Dec. 2nd, Jennifer will be awarded somewhere between $250 and $5000, depending on her ranking. Congratulations Jennifer and good luck!!
